

POINTERS

On March 11, 14 European rail and transport associations, including CER, EIM, ERFA, UNIFE and UIP, expressed concern about EU proposals to use funding allocated for TEN-T projects under the Connecting Europe Facility to provide credit guarantees for the proposed European Fund for Strategic Investment. The funds could be siphoned off to support non-transport investment, they warned.